1. The 44 Serbian Infantry Division and one elite division of Croats and Slovenes were recently formed. Each division comprises three active regiments and one reserve regiment (each regiment numbers about 3,200 men), one armored detachment, one anti-aircraft unit, a group of reconnaissance planes, and unspecified support units. The 44 Division is stationed in Valjevo, and Division Headquarters is billeted in Gracac.
2. Tito has ordered that the coastal waters along the entire Yugoslav coast and the Danube be mined. The Danube is completely closed at night. Pilots are essential for navigation in Yugoslav ports.
